State Examination Payments

Payment Arrangements for School Appointed Superintendents, Examinations Aides and Art Models at the 2017 Certificate Examinations

The State Examinations Commission (SEC) will refund the costs of employment in respect of the following examinations positions:

1. School appointed examination superintendents for LCA, LCVP, Aural and Practical examinations and for superintendents of special centres under the scheme of reasonable accommodations (including those who also act as readers/scribes).
2. Examinations Aides
3. Art Models

Superintendents of special examination centres

There is no change to the rates of pay for 2017. We confirm that the change to the method of calculating payment of superintendents of special examination centres with the introduction of a session rate in place of a daily rate continues to apply.

Superintendents of special examination centres will be paid by reference to the number of examination sessions that they superintend. The special centre superintending rate is €42.75 per session for SNAs and €56.02 per session for non SNAs (i.e. a superintendent of a special centre who superintends two sessions in any day will continue to be paid the equivalent of the previous daily rate).

A session is regarded as a morning or an afternoon examination sitting. Aural tests are considered part of the examination session of the subject to which they relate and are not regarded as an examination session in their own right.

Special Needs Assistants appointed as Superintendents

Where the school has appointed a local Superintendent, in line with the Reasonable Accommodation Guidelines for Schools and Superintendents and that Superintendent is a Special Needs Assistant, specific payment arrangements are in place.

The Department of Education and Skills has an agreement with the trade union IMPACT, which represents SNAs, that in cases where an SNA is supporting a candidate in a special centre during the examinations and also performing the duties associated with superintending of the special centre, the agreed fee, as detailed in Appendix A, will be paid in respect of the superintending role.

The SEC recognises that all decisions with regard to the appointment of superintendents of special examination centres and other situations which require a locally appointed superintendent are matters for the school authority acting in the best interest of candidates.

Payment for School Appointed Superintendents, Examinations Aides and Art Models

1. Application of Tax, USC and PRSI

It is the responsibility of individual schools to administer tax, PRSI and USC for the above appointments and to pay over any monies deducted in respect of same to the Revenue Commissioners.

The appointment of superintendents and examination aides is covered under Class J PRSI. The rate of employer PRSI under this class is 0.5%. The SEC will refund to schools the employer PRSI at the appropriate rate in respect of superintendents and examination aides.

The above employees must be registered on ROS immediately and processed on the schools computer payroll package.

2. Public Service Pension Related Deduction (PRD)

Earnings in respect of work conducted for, or on behalf of, the SEC are subject to the Public Service Pension Related Deduction (PRD) as provided for in the Financial Emergency Measures in the Public Interest Act 2009. The following section details how PRD should be applied by schools in respect of locally appointed superintendents and examinations aides. This section also provides details of how deductions in respect of PRD should be reported to the SEC. All employees must complete the form in Appendix B before they commence employment.

a. Determining Applicability of/Exemption from PRD

The Emergency Measures in the Public Interest Act 2009 defines a person to whom the PRD applies as a person who

- i. is a public servant, and,
- ii. is a member of a public service pension scheme, or,

- iii. is entitled to a benefit under a public service pension scheme, or,
- iv. receives a payment in lieu of membership of a public service pension scheme

An individual appointed by a school as a superintendent or an examinations aide who meets any of the criteria above is subject to PRD.

Exemption. An individual who does not meet any of these criteria is considered exempt from PRD. Individuals wishing to claim an exemption from PRD should complete the exemption form as provided by the SEC. Completed forms are to be retained by the school for audit purposes. They should not be returned to the SEC. Payments to exempt individuals for examinations work may be made without applying PRD.

The SEC expects that a significant proportion of locally appointed examinations personnel, as serving SNAs and teachers, will be liable to PRD.

b. Determining the Rate(s) of PRD to Apply

If an individual appointed as a superintendent or examinations aide is subject to PRD, by reference to the criteria set out above, then the school must determine the rate of PRD to apply by reference to the individual's employment or pension status as follows:

- The school is the individual's main employer: if the individual is otherwise employed by the school (e.g., as a teacher, SNA, etc.) then the school should deduct PRD at the appropriate rate by reference to the aggregate earnings in the employment, including the earnings in respect of examinations work. The PRD rates are set out in the table below. NB The individual is considered to be employed by the school even if the Department of Education and Skills is the paying agent.
- The school is the individual's subsidiary employer: if the individual is only employed by the school for the purpose of the state examinations, then the school is required to deduct PRD, at a rate of 10.5%, from all of their earnings in respect of examinations work.
- The individual is in receipt of a public service pension; the school should apply PRD to earnings in respect of their examinations work only by reference to the rates and thresholds set out in the table below.

The rates of PRD that apply to all public service income are as follows

€ Band	Rate
€0 - €28,750	0.00%
€28,750 - €60,000	10.00%
>€60,000	10.50%

The Financial Emergency Measures in the Public Interest Act 2009 which gives legal effect to the PRD states that employers who do not deduct the PRD as required will have any public sector grants due to them reduced by the amount of the PRD liability.

The SEC will reimburse schools for the employment of locally appointed examinations personnel net of PRD.

Claims for Payment

All claims for reimbursement of the cost of employing locally appointed examinations personnel must be made on the appropriate forms and must be accompanied by signed receipts. All schools are required to record the individual PRD amounts deducted from payments to school appointed superintendents and examinations aides on the relevant SEC claim forms. All claims for reimbursement must also be accompanied by the new composite recording form OS 2017. This form facilitates the recording of all PRD deductions from such staff and will enable the SEC to make the necessary exchequer PRD returns.

The SEC will only accept claims for reimbursement on SEC forms of account, the use of non SEC forms will result in the entire claim being returned to the School. All claims for reimbursement must be signed by the recipient in the school and the school principal.

N.B. Claims that are completed incorrectly, inaccurately and /or unsigned will be returned in their entirety to the school. (See appendix C below for notes on completing the form SPI 2017)
